Celotex Production Sets New High

The Celotex Corporation's April sales volume was the greatest for a single month in its 46-year history, according to Chairman James W. Walker.

Also, during April the Hamlin plant employees were called upon to produce and ship every square foot of board possible. A new record of shipping almost 3,000,000 feet over any previous month in the plant's history was set.

Walter attributed the record volume to a greater penetration of market areas, broader distribution of products added production facilities and continuing expansion of the Celotex product lines. ## FAIRVIEW NEWS...

By Mrs. Elmer Joiner

Another beautiful Monday morning after a turbulent Saturday afternoon thunderstorm, which only brought a trace of rain to our area. It is a debatable question, do we, or do we not, need rain right now. Believe the do nots might win, for cotton has been planted and wheat is either being cut or about ready, just at that stage where anything that falls can damage it.

George Wainscott underwent very serious surgery again, last Thursday morning, in Hendrick Hospital. For the first three days he was not doing very well, but as of Sunday, his wife reported him to be much better. Since it had only been a little less than three months that he had major surgery, and he is like some of the rest of us, isn't too young any more, so it makes it rather hard on him. We just all hope with him that this will be the last and he will be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Gray visited with his father, E. C. Gray, in Anson Hospital, Saturday, where he is recovering from a case of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, who were enroute home from their cabin, at Hubbard Creek Lake, to Muleshoe, visited a short while Thursday morning with the Elmer Joiners. This trip down he had built a ramp down to his boat house for all of their older friends to walk down the creek bank. How nice of him.

The Ford family met in Abilene, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ford, for a dinner honoring their mother, Mrs. Joe Ford, who had a birthday recently. Won't tell on her how many it was, but she did report they had a very nice day, with 32 members of her family present.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts, of Abilene, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. E. Ray, Anson, made a short visit with Mrs. Elmer Joiner, Saturday morning. She was having her children, Wayne Ray of New Orleans, La., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen Ash of Lubbock, and Mr. Ray's sister, Mrs. Lois Hampton of Abilene, as visitors over the weekend.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin visited with Mrs. F. Enry Thursday afternoon.

The Tri-Church W. M. U. met in my home last Wednesday morning with thirteen women and four children present. Neinda had four present, Hanna one, Fairview seven, with one visitor, Mrs. Babb's mother, Mrs. Edwards, of Sylvester. Since school is out and some have small children, it was voted to meet with the Neinda Church for the day meetings, instead of the homes, through the summer months, then the children can have Sunbeams. On June 16 there will be an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon, at the Neinda Church, when Mrs. Frank Coddington will teach the Mission Study book, The American Jew. The next meeting will be with the Tuxedo Church, Wednesday night, June 8, for the monthly meeting of the brotherhood and the ladies. Although the Tuxedo ladies do not participate in the W. M. U. they did extend a cordial welcome for them to come to their church at that date.

Mrs. Barnes of Lamesa visited this past week with her sister, Mrs. Dan Kidd, and in the Melvin Thompson home.

The Kenneth Leverett family spent the past week in Kingsland visiting with his parents. They report a fine time.

Seems I got the young lady's name wrong last week, any way her name is Rebecca Jill Douglas. They drove to San Antonio and got her from the Methodist Home there. Sorry I made the mistake. She is now the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Douglas of Merkell.

Mrs. R. T. (Aunt Mary) Jones of Merkell spent the weekend visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Raymond Kiser and children have gone to Odem to be with her father who is quite ill. I hope he has a rapid recovery.

Mrs. E. C. Kiser left on Sunday for a visit with his daughter's family, the Stanly Combs, in Indianapolis, Ind.

He will be there for his grandsons graduation and while there Mr. Kiser will celebrate his 80th birthday.

Mrs. E. P. Harris and grandson, Spurlon, spent last Thursday afternoon in Anson with her daughter, Kacey.

We enjoyed talking to Mr. and Mrs. Grover Combest of Slidell, La., and her sister were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Babb and Brown homes. It was good to see them.

FAIRVIEW NEWS...

By Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Another beautiful Monday morning after a turbulent Saturday afternoon thunderstorm, which only brought a trace of rain to our area. It is a debatable question, do we, or do we not, need rain right now. Believe the do nots might win, for cotton has been planted and wheat is either being cut or about ready, just at that stage where anything that falls can damage it.

George Wainscott underwent very serious surgery again, last Thursday morning, in Hendrick Hospital. For the first three days he was not doing very well, but as of Sunday, his wife reported him to be much better. Since it had only been a little less than three months that he had major surgery, and he is like some of the rest of us, isn't too young any more, so it makes it rather hard on him. We just all hope with him that this will be the last and he will be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray visited with his father, E. C. Gray, in Anson Hospital, Saturday, where he is recovering from a case of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, who were enroute home from their cabin at Hubbard Creek Lake, to Muleshoe, visited a short while Thursday morning with the Elmer Joiners. This trip down he had built a ramp down to his boat house for all of their older friends to walk down the creek bank. How nice of him.

The Ford family met in Abilene, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ford, for a dinner honoring their mother, Mrs. Joe Ford, who had a birthday recently. Won't tell on her how many it was, but she did report they had a very nice day, with 32 members of her family present.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roberts, of Anson, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. R. E. Ray, Anson, made a short visit with Mrs. Elmer Joiner, Saturday morning. She was having her children, Wayne Ray of New Orleans, La., Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen Ash of Lubbock, and Mr. Ray's sister, Mrs. Lois Hampton of Abilene, as visitors over the weekend.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin visited with Mrs. Henry Thursday afternoon.

The Tri-Church W. M. U. met in my home last Wednesday morning with thirteen women and four children present. Neinda had four present, Hanna one, Fairview seven, with one visitor, Mrs. Babb's mother, Mrs. Edwards, of Sylvester. Since school is out and some have small children, it was voted to meet with the Neinda Church for the day meetings, instead of the homes, through the summer months, then the children can have Suntreams. On June 16 there will be an all day meeting with a covered dish luncheon, at the Neinda Church, when Mrs. Frank Codington will teach the Mission Study book, The American Jew. The next meeting will be with the Tuxedo Church, Wednesday night, June 8, for the monthly meeting of the brotherhood and the ladies. Although the Tuxedo ladies do not participate in the W. M. U. they did extend a cordial welcome for them to come to their church at that date.
